FAST™ EZ-EFI® Now Covered By Unrivald Lifetime Guarantee

Memphis, TN – FAST™ engineers are so confident in the performance and reliability of the EZ-EFI® Self-Tuning Fuel Injection System that it comes with a limited lifetime warranty.

Over 15 years of firsthand EFI knowledge and tuning expertise went into creating the EZ-EFI® Self-Tuning Fuel Injection System. Because the system was developed 100% in-house by a full time staff of engineers, and not contracted out to a third party developer, FAST™ has been able to continually update and improve the EZ-EFI®. This means you get a durable product with a more refined self tuning logic as compared to anything else available. FAST™ is so confident in how well the EZ-EFI® performs that it comes with a limited lifetime warranty. Thousands of satisfied customers and nearly every major media outlet recognize the EZ-EFI® System as the safest, easiest solution for switching from carb to fuel injection. With the new warranty, your investment is that much safer. This is just one more reason to choose the only self-tuning system on the market that comes with peace of mind instead of gambling with an unproven imitator.
